

Elk of the Month

This month's Elk of the month will be both surprised and embarrassed.

He is a person who does not like recognition, my biggest critic, yet my best supporter.

He has come down for the past few years almost daily in the mornings to see that the Lodge is OK. Goes through the garbage to gather, recyclable cans and bottles for the Lodge that have been discarded, he lets me know if any lights or doors have been left on etc. If you have noticed he has loss some weight lately, the reason being, he likes to eat and I am not doing such a good job lately with cooking. The house is not kept as clean either. Yes, Ron Hewitson it is you, and thanks for your support. "And yes, this is nepotism."
